

A peaceful weekend of prayer, instruction, fellowship, sharing, and quiet in the retreat setting of the Capuchin Center for Spiritual Life.

We are greatly blessed to have Father Calinic Berger lead the sessions at this annual Lenten retreat.

The time will be spent in worship services, communal meals, instructional sessions, and time for quiet reflection and prayer.

The fee of $150 covers all costs, including lodging and meals. Contact Father Paul at the Cathedral for more info on available financial assistance.

Father Calinic Berger is a graduate of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology (1994), and the Catholic University of America (2003), where he earned his PhD in Patristics and historical theology. After working as an electrical engineer in the semiconductor industry, he was ordained to the holy diaconate in 2005 and to the holy priesthood in 2006. Father Calinic has served as Visiting Professor of Dogmatic Theology at St. Vladimir's Seminary and has taught and published on Orthodox theology and spiritual life in a variety of venues. He currently serves as assistant pastor at St Nicholas Antiochian Orthodox Christian Cathedral in Los Angeles.
