St. George Workday Preparations Underway !

St. George Is on a Roll: 20,675 Down, Kibbe and Baklava to Go!

What does it take to turn 1.6 tons of cabbage into 20,675 hand-rolled cabbage rolls? Dozens of volunteers, six long workdays — and a whole lot of cabbage!

Volunteers are already hard at work preparing for the 91st Annual St. George Lebanese Dinner, October 10 and 11. Although the Dinner is still two months away, feeding more than 5,000 people takes months of planning and preparation. Our St. George Sittis began serving this Mediterranean meal nearly 100 years ago. Officially, we've served the Dinner 91 times, taking only a few years off over the decades for pandemics, remodeling projects, and other interruptions.

Cabbage rolls may be the most labor-intensive—and dreaded—part of preparing the meal, mostly because of the tedious work and sheer volume involved. Last week, 3,200 pounds of cabbage arrived at St. George—roughly the weight of a Honda Civic! Our 25-member Cabbage Coring Crew quickly made light work of that heavy load, hammering the cores from every head of cabbage in a record one hour and ten minutes.

Over the next two days, volunteers stood over pots of boiling water, steaming the cabbage heads, peeling away the tender leaves, and stacking them for the rolling crew.

Then the rolling began.

Over five days, nearly 50 volunteers stuffed each cabbage leaf with a meat-and-rice mixture and rolled it into a perfect little bundle. Next, the cooking crew boiled the rolls with lemon juice and garlic. Finally, the packing crew loaded them into small trays for the

Country Kitchen and large trays to heat and serve at the Dinner in October.

The final count: 20,675 cabbage rolls!

If you missed the cabbage action this past week, there's still plenty of time to join the fun. In September, we'll tackle kibba and baklawa.

But the Lebanese Dinner is about much more than preparing food and organizing volunteers. It gives us an opportunity to share the story of our parish, celebrate the rich Lebanese heritage our community has faithfully preserved for nearly 100 years, and invite others into that legacy. Every recipe we prepare, every conversation we share, and every act of service connects new parishioners and members of our community with the history, faith, and traditions that have shaped St. George for generations.

Most importantly, we hope everyone who walks through our doors experiences the hospitality and love of Christ through us. Invite your children, family, and friends to join us. Together, we can create lasting memories, pass these traditions to another generation, and ensure this beautiful St. George tradition continues for many years to come.

Come and Join Us!
