

We are greatly honored to welcome Father Chad Hatfield lead the sessions at this annual Lenten retreat. Father Chad is the retired president of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Seminary in NY. He is also the former dean of St Herman Seminary in Kodiak, AK and the father founder of St. Mary Magdalene Mission in Manhattan, KS and All Saints Church, Salina, KS, where he currently serves.

Father Chad serves on the boards of Orthodox Christians for Life and Paideia, has been granted several awards for excellence in theological education (including the St John Chrysostom Award from the Patriarch of Romania), and holds a D.Min. from Pittsburgh Seminary, as well as two honorary doctorate degrees.

He and his wife Kh. Thekla have two married sons and three grandchildren.

Let us consider (1) why we retreat from the world and the place of silence in this process; (2) the role of the Theotokos in the economy of our salvation by making the Incarnation possible and, therefore, the Mysteries of the Church; and (3) the integral meaning to us as Orthodox Christians of the missional command of Christ in the Great Commission.

St. George Cathedral cordially invites you to join the men of St. George for the Twenty-Third Annual
